THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

If not for God revealing Himself to us through His Word, whose Paschal deeds opened the doorway to eternity for us, where would we be now? Nowhere! Jesus' death and resurrection has given light to the blind, hope to the hopeless and eternal life to all who will accept it. Today we have been given a reason to be eternally grateful. With the angels let us sing: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Fr John

FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

Dear brothers and sisters
in Christ,

On behalf of myself, my fellow clergy and the office staff of our City Pastoral Region, may I take this opportunity to wish you and your families a very happy and holy Easter. My thanks to all those who have helped with the decoration of our churches for Holy Week and with the planning and celebration of our paschal liturgies during this time. Over this Easter season we are welcoming a number of people into full Communion with us. Let's congratulate them and keep them in our prayers.

We also keep in our prayers those children who have enrolled in our Sacramental Program for 2024 and look forward to being Confirmed and receiving their first Eucharist over the coming months. A special thanks to our sacramental coordinator Dr Anne Millard for her wonderful work in coordinating this.

In the coming weeks, I will be calling for volunteers to form an RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) Team for our region, to guide and accompany adults who express an interest in joining our Catholic faith. Formation will be provided for those who would like to become part of this team.

You may have also noticed in recent editions of our Sunday bulletins, EPIC (Everything is Possible in Christ) - a young adult faith-sharing group (for anyone aged between 20 and 40). Our thanks go out to Jenifer and Deon for leading this wonderful new initiative, and a number of other young people who are already supporting it with their participation. We pray it will continue to grow and prosper as more young people hear of it.

Fr Paul and Fr Anil will be going on leave over the coming month, visiting loved ones in India and having a well-earned rest, so we pray they will have a safe and enjoyable break.

Wishing you all every grace and blessing.

Love

Fr John

EASTER REFLECTION

by Richard Leonard SJ

A man was driving along the road when he saw the Easter Bunny hop into his lane. He swerved to avoid hitting the bunny, but couldn't do so. The basket of eggs went everywhere. The driver felt guilty and began to cry. A woman saw the man and pulled over. 'What's wrong?' she asked. 'I accidentally killed the Easter Bunny', he explained. The woman knew exactly what to do. She went to her car, pulled out a spray can, walked over to the bunny, and sprayed the entire contents over the little furry animal. Miraculously the Easter Bunny came back to life, jumped up, picked up his eggs, waved at them and hopped on down the road. Not far away the Easter Bunny stopped, turned around and waved again. He kept doing this for as far as they could see.

The man was astonished. 'What in heaven's name is in that can you sprayed on the Easter Bunny?' The woman showed the man the label. It said: 'Hair spray. Restores life to dead hair. Adds permanent wave.'

For many of our children the bunny and its eggs are the most important thing about Easter. Over the millennia, Christianity has had a gift for domesticating local traditions and festivals, bringing them on board and making them our own. The name Easter comes from the Anglo Saxon spring festival in honour of the goddess Eostre. Her symbol was the rabbit and the giving of eggs were signs of new life bursting forth as winter withdrew. These associations only make sense in the northern hemisphere, but we can see why the early Christians could be so adaptable and inculturated with this local festival.

In both hemispheres Christians today celebrate Jesus being raised from the dead. In the New Testament there are two traditions about how the disciples come to know about Jesus' resurrection: the empty tomb and the apparitions of Christ.

Today's Gospel belongs to the empty tomb tradition. On Magdalene's urging, Peter and John run to the tomb, find it empty and come to at least an initial belief about the resurrection of Jesus.

We do not believe that God simply revived Jesus' corpse in the tomb, as our driver resuscitated the bunny in today's story. Easter Sunday does not celebrate the resuscitation of Jesus, but his Resurrection. We know his 'glorified body' was not the same as his human body because Jesus' presence could be encountered in several places simultaneously and he is reported to walk through walls and to vanish. The link between both resurrection traditions is the importance of Jesus' death. In the empty tomb accounts, as in today's gospel, the writers give us extraordinary details about the grave clothes. In the apparition narratives there are usually references to Jesus' wounds.

Whatever way they came to experience the Resurrection of Christ, the disciples knew that this was Jesus who actually died and was buried and that their personal encounter was with the one who was crucified.

What God did through the death and resurrection of Jesus is what Christians have done with local customs and festivals ever since: he entered into it, understood it, took it on board, domesticated it and vanquished its power. As a result we believe that God empathises with the full limitations of our human mortality and promises to remain faithful to us in death as he remained utterly faithful to Jesus.

That is why on this day 1,600 years ago St John Chrysostom could say on behalf of us all:

'Hell took a body, and discovered God. It took earth, and encountered Heaven. It took what it saw, and was overcome by what it could not see. O death, where is your sting? O Hell, where is your victory? Christ is Risen, and you, O death, are destroyed! Christ is Risen, and evil is cast down! Christ is Risen, and angels rejoice! Christ is Risen, and new life is set free! Christ is Risen, and the tomb is emptied of its dead; for Christ having risen from the dead, becomes the first-fruit of those who have fallen asleep. To Him be Glory and Power forever and ever. Amen!'
