THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

In the Gospel this week, Jesus shows us the importance of being present and sensitive to the spiritual and material needs of those who unexpectedly come to us for help. And that is why the Lord is calling us to devote significant time and effort to the service of the poor and needy in our various communities and the world at large.

In what ways can I be more present and sensitive to the spiritual and material needs of others?

How can I be more empathetic and loving towards those around me, like the sheep without a shepherd?

HISTORICAL CONTEXT

Prayer and reflection

Jesus demonstrated how important it is to engage in times of quiet prayer and reflection. When you expend a lot of time and energy in the service of others it is essential to reflect on those experiences, to learn from them and consider what you'd do differently next time. It is also important that any ministry that seeks to be based in the message of Jesus can only remain so if it is fuelled by prayer. Only through prayerful dialogue with God can we learn what God desires for us.

SEA SUNDAY APPEAL

This week we celebrate Sea Sunday, when the church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them, we would not have most of the items we rely on for daily living. Even during a pandemic, seafarers continue to bring into our ports products that sustain our population and economy. The Appeal today is for Stella Maris, Apostleship of the Sea, the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. To assist this Catholic ministry, please send your donations to: <https://stellamarisaustralia.org/sea-sunday-appeal/> or transfer funds to:

SEEKING YOUR ASSISTANCE WITH THE 'ABSENT FROM THE TABLE' RESEARCH PROJECT

The Australian Catholic Bishops Conference is undertaking a research project aimed at investigating why some Catholics do not participate in regular weekly Sunday Mass (Sunday Mass includes the Saturday Vigil). The project will provide in-depth information about contemporary religious practices and beliefs of Catholics in Australia. The insights would enable parishes, movements, and school communities to respond to the trends in participation in the Church, update the Church's awareness and understanding of the present-day context, and enable responses and collaboration around the underlying factors for non/dis-engagement.

We have been asked to seek the assistance of people who meet the selection criteria for this survey:

1. That they self-identify as Catholics and are 18 years and over.
2. That they do not regularly* attend weekly Mass on Sundays.

*Regular weekly attendance is defined as physical attendance at Sunday Mass three or more times a month, including the Saturday vigil celebrated in many parishes.

If you know of anyone who fits this criteria and might be happy to assist with this research, please show/forward them this message and invite them to use the link/address below to open up and complete the survey, which is currently open and will close on Tuesday, 20 August 2024. The survey is anonymous, participants can decline to answer any questions, withdraw from the survey at any time and obtain further information and gain access to the research findings via email:

ncpr@catholic.org.au or www.ncpr.catholic.org.au.

We thank you for your assistance with this valuable research.

FRANCIS' FOCUS

A Reflection by Nick Brodie

'Compassion', Pope Francis says, 'is born from contemplation.' This, he intimates, is the essence of today's Gospel passage. 'If we learn to truly rest,' he says, 'we become capable of true compassion.'

As the Pope points out, Jesus recognised that his disciples needed rest. None of us can or should be busy all the time. There is a danger for Christians, the Pope warns, 'to be caught up in the frenzy of doing things, to fall into the trap of activism'.

We should always remember that the crowd went to meet Jesus. They sought him out because his message was attractive and attracting.

'How many times this happens in the Church', the Pope suggests, where 'we risk neglecting Jesus and ... make ourselves the centre.' Sometimes parishes are burdened with so many corporate evangelisation plans, programs, and pastoral activities that people are wearied. The Church, at every level, occasionally needs to pause and listen for the crowd that is searching for Jesus.

As the Pope reflects, 'only a heart that does not allow itself to be taken over by hastiness is capable of being moved'. Jesus saw the people and understood their needs. Through us he is still trying to, if only we will slow down and let him.

Sheep and Shepherds

This gospel passage is one of many gospel references and even more Old Testament references to sheep and shepherds. It is an enduring image from the Bible. Much of it stems from the shepherd-become-King, David. When a monarchy developed in Israel it was clear that the role of king was like that of a shepherd, caring for his flock. Jesus applied the image to himself on several occasions, reinforcing an image of servant leadership. The language continues today, with bishops referred to as shepherds of their diocese and carrying a crosier that is reminiscent of a shepherd's crook.

NEW CITY REGION RCIA TEAM

You may recall Fr John inviting Expressions of Interest for a new RCIA Team for the City Region. Eight people came forward and this new Team begins its formation journey with a Formation - Retreat Day on Friday 26 July @ the Sisters of Mercy Regional Office, 20 Union St Tighes Hill, 9.00 – 3.30. The day is called 'I call you friends.' The ministry of Christian Initiation is the responsibility of the whole parish community and part of the Team's initial work will be focused on the whole community becoming more intentionally an 'Initiating community'. We are therefore extending the invitation to participate in this initial formation day to all members of faithful across the three parishes who comprise the City Region. To register please email: newcparish@mn.catholic.org.au by 5.00pm Monday 22 July with your name and contact details (mobile and email). Numbers are essential both for catering purposes and printing resources for participants.

The ministry of Initiation begins for the whole community now. As well as coming to the formation day on 26 July, you are invited to do two things:

1. Pray always: Pray for the new team. Pray for the whole region to grow as an initiating community. Pray for all people who seek the living God and to explore their relationship with God in the context of the Catholic community.
2. Reflect: How are you an agent of God's friendship in your everyday encounters? To those who are members of the faithful but have little to do with the faith community? To those beyond the community of faith? Together we are beginning an exciting journey. Stay tuned.
